A Card.

I beg to inform the citizens of Jackson and th adjacent towns and county that I have opened at No. 8 Pearl street, in Jackson (next door to Robinson's Opera House) a most complete suite of Dental Rooms, combining elegance, comfort and convenience in such manner as to please the most aesthetic or fashionable. I propose conducting a dental practice of the highest grade—using only the best mater ials and bestowing the greatest care and attention upon each and every case. The patronage of the public is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully, ISHAM B. REMBERT, D. D. S.

Notice.

I beg to give notice that while repairs are being rade in the offices of the Governor, and Governor's Private Secretary, all business can be transacted by alling at the temporary quarters in the State Li-Respectfully,

Dr. I. B. Rembert.

Our people of Jackson are ever ready to extend a welcome to new comers, in business, to our city, especially when they bring with them true testimonials of correct soial standing and superior business qualifications; for then we feel they have come to stay; and from testimonials we have seen of Dr. I. B. Rembert we believe he posseswill insure him business success, and that Price. Jackson has in Dr. Rembert a valuable acherself as a society favorite has returned quisition to both her social and business aircles. His "card" appears in another

To our friends in the State Capital we can most heartify commend Dr. I. B. Rembert. We helped to teach this young idea how to shoot, and we know that it expanded vigorously, and that there are now few brighter men in his profession. For morality gentlemanty deportment, and skill in his well studied profession, we feel sure we can vouch for Dr. Isham Rembert.
